

levied to supplement the special school fund in said town. Said election shall be held under the rules and regulations governing municipal elections in said town, and for the purposes of said election the board of commissioners shall order an entirely new registration for the entire district. For the purpose of ordering said registration and election the board of commissioners may meet in special session. At the election to be held under the provisions of this act those who favor the levying of said taxes shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words "For Special Tax" and those who are opposed shall vote a ticket on which shall be printed or written the words "Against Special Tax." If a majority of the qualified voters shall be in favor of special taxes, the same shall be annually levied and collected as the other town taxes in said town, and in that portion of said district in Robeson County shall be levied by the board of commissioners of Robeson County and collected by the Sheriff of Robeson, and in Scotland County and collected by the Sheriff of Scotland County; and all of said taxes when collected shall be turned over to the treasurer of said school committee, and shall by them be applied exclusively to the support and maintenance of public schools in said district. The special school tax thus levied and collected shall not exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property and fifty cents on the poll.
